Antonello Fiamma – Bio

Antonello Fiamma is a guitarist, composer, and educator from Matera. After graduating with honors in classical guitar from the Conservatory and earning a master's degree in Applied Music for Images, he specialized in fingerstyle, a crucial element in his artistic path.

Between 2014 and 2023, he released three albums and several singles, ranging from instrumental compositions to singer-songwriter works. A winner of prestigious national awards (A.D.G.P.A. 2014, L'artista che non c'era 2018), he has performed in Italy and abroad at major fingerstyle guitar and world music festivals.

Alongside his artistic and live performance career, he is deeply committed to education. He teaches guitar (all styles), ensemble music, theory, and arranging at the renowned Cluster Music School in Milan, where he has served as academic coordinator since 2023.